

Craig Kennedy Professional Bio

Craig Kennedy brings over 25 years of experience across education, government, non-profit, and entrepreneurial sectors. His extensive background as an Executive Director in the post-secondary education sector gives him a unique understanding of multi-generational workplaces, enabling him to foster diverse and inclusive learning and working environments. Known as a strategic thinker and consensus builder, Craig excels in developing collaborative solutions that drive organizational success.

As a coach, Craig has guided small business owners, solopreneurs, managers, and executives across industries as diverse as health care, technology, not-for-profit, government, professional services, and postsecondary education. His ability to address specific challenges and opportunities in these fields has made him a trusted advisor. Additionally, Craig is an accomplished speaker and trainer, specializing in team dynamics, workflow management, and effective interpersonal communications. He is also an adept facilitator, utilizing Open Space Technology and World Café methodologies to engage large stakeholder gatherings.

In recognition of his contributions, Craig received the National Award of Distinction from the Association of Managers in Canadian College and University Student Centres in 2013. Now residing in Nova Scotia's beautiful Annapolis Valley with his wife, Craig balances his professional commitments with a love for the outdoors, embracing the region's natural beauty while continuing to make a meaningful impact in his field.

Peak Experiences was formed in 1992 to help individuals by delivering powerful learning solutions for organizations, leaders and practitioners who have a clear stake in accelerating their individual and collective effectiveness. Through the use of our globally-recognized tools from Human Synergetics, administered locally by our associates, our clients are able to measure what many assume cannot be measured; individual behaviour, group styles, organizational culture, and the impact of these factors on effectiveness and performance. By doing so, we enable individuals, groups, and organizations to initiate changes and realize their potential.

Core Values: Our commitment embraces both intention and action. Our organizational core values govern everything we do. When you choose to work with us, you are assured of:
